White Sox

It was a fine day, a fine field and a great crowd when the game between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox was played Wednesday afternoon at the El Paso Coliseum.

A combination of a high sky, a scalped diamond, covered with sand, and a high altitude presented the two big league teams from playing first division ball. The Sox got to Mathewson in the first inning for three hits and three runs, whereupon the "Big Six" person retired to the bench and Hearne went in to pitch. The Sox, who were also a twamper on the slinger of the game, the Giants being most affected by the lack of spirit.

Fans enjoyed seeing Big Chief Meyers, Jim Thorpe, Larry Doyle and Christy Mathewson in action and John McGraw coaching from the bench. Preliminary stunts were more interesting than the actual game for the players pulled a number of big league plays, fungo hits and a few pitchers warmed up in front of the grand stand.

Aeroplane Flight Stops Game.
An aeroplane, driven by Earl Wagner, mechanic for Katherine Stinson, appeared from Fort Bliss during the first inning and after a series of spirals, it volplaned down on the field and Sam Crawford, the clown of the Detroit Tigers, climbed in and took a little ride around the aviator on the ground. The machine attracted as much attention as the big leaguers and the game was stopped until it could be landed off the field.

Umpire Klem was the other counter attraction to the ball players proper. Klem's voice, his method of handling the game itself, his introduction of the players as the world's greatest athlete, catcher Shaik as the boy wonder and a few other wonders at the Coliseum, he opened his announcement by introducing John McGraw and manager Jimmie Callahan of the Chicago team.

Weaver Gets a Two Bagger.
After the Giants had taken the count before the smoky twirling of Jim Scott, in the first half of the initial inning, Buck Weaver, of his stick reawakened, grooved one of Mathewson's fadeaway for a two bagger into deep right field. Morris Rath duplicated the feat of Weaver and Buck chased across the pin for the first of the game. Tris Speaker dumped the ball before the plate, going out via the Myers-Merkle route. Doyle handcuffed the stiff roller hit by Walter Sam Crawford, Rath going to third and later racing home on a wild throw by Mathewson over Meyer's head. "German" Shaffer clipped a neat single to Doolan, who allowed it to bound into left field, and Crawford, who was third, tallying a moment later on Meyer's wild heave over second base in an attempt to nab Robert Daley. Daley flew out to left field, this inning marked the exit of Mathewson.

Merkle Scores Doyle.
Larry Doyle, who makes in the Giants' half of the second, and was brought home on Fred Merkle's three-timer, to deep center. After Doolan had lined to Doyle, Jim Thorpe, a scrawny, rapped out a long, low drive down the third base line, scoring Merkle. Meyer's fiancée, who was in the White Sox mated the register of the Giants in their half when Jim Scott, second man up, secured a two bagger into right center. He pilfered third and galloped across on Weaver's sacrifice ballyooner to Snodgrass, in center. Rath, Speaker and Shaffer secured a sack in succession, but Evans ended the uprising with a fly to MacFay.

Fred Merkle secured his second hit, good for three sacks in the fourth and scored a minute later on Doolan's sacrifice to Daley. Doyle, who was first base, Thorpe came along with a long knock to center, good for three bags, but was thrown out at second. Daley stretched it into a home run, Weaver to Shaik.

Sox Rally in the Seventh.
Nothing on either side until the seventh, the White Sox pounded out seven hits with five runs, and the game was in a continual state of flux.

Crawford inaugurated the inning with a neat grass cutter to right, the stoney earth making it difficult for Thorpe to recover the ball. Evans sacrificed him to second, and "German" Shaffer hit a single to right. Crawford taking third. In an effort to catch Shaffer, Meyer pegged low to Doyle, and Crawford scored. Daley scored Shaffer with a single into the right pasture, and took second on the throw in. Hearne relayed to Robert who caught Daley, after Shaik had advanced him to third on a single into right field. Jim Scott hammered out a single to center, scored Shaik. Scott scored on Weaver's two-bagger to deep right. Rath rified out a single into right, and Weaver counted. Rath went out, Hearne to Doyle.

Doolan was given four wide ones, and stole second. Meyer hit a two-bagger to center, scoring Doolan.

Giants Rally in the Eighth.
A rally in the ninth excited the fans when two hits, and a base on balls netted two runs for the Giants. Doolan singled to left, and Jim Thorpe, both scoring a few moments later on Meyer's two-bagger to center, which Crawford muffed. Meyer took second on the throw in, but Doyle, who batted for Hearne, and Snodgrass were easy outs.

NEW FANS ATTEND BASEBALL DINNER
Manager McGraw and many players absent—Mayor Kelly speaks.

Only a small crowd attended the dinner given in honor of the first ball players at the Paso Del Norte Wednesday evening. By a conflict in the time for the dinner the ball players had their dinner early and were on sight seeing cruises about the city and the dinner was in progress. The dinner crowd was also small, fewer than half the tables which were set for the dinner being occupied.

Notes Present.
The notables at the dinner were Chief Meyers and wife, Jim Thorpe and wife, Mayor Kelly, John McGraw and wife, and Joe O'Neill, manager of the Chicago club. The dinner was a most interesting affair and first introduced Mayor C. E. Kelly, who welcomed the visiting Chicago baseball players. For the players manager Callahan made a nice little talk, apologizing for the absence of many players from the dinner by saying that they had but two meals each day, breakfast at 9 and dinner soon after the game. He added that for this reason the players could hardly be held until 8 o'clock.

McGraw Absent.
He also offered manager John McGraw's apologies for his absence. His wife's mother died suddenly in Baltimore and the funeral was held Wednesday. For this reason the "Little Giant" did not feel able to the occasion, the Chicago manager said.

Mr. Callahan outlined the itinerary of the world tour, the dates and explained that the purpose was to introduce baseball to the world, and to develop the physical man through baseball. He explained that the players were unused to the local grounds, the high sky and the other adverse conditions and that many of them were out of the game or were on the hospital list because of injuries received during the first part of the tour.

Chief Meyers and Jim Thorpe were introduced as the greatest catcher and runner in the world, and each acknowledged the applause they received with a short talk. Umpire Klem also made a short talk and Mrs. Klem was also introduced to the crowd. Joe O'Neill, business manager of the Chicago team, gave a splendid monolog and the crowd of players left for their special train. The Giants and Sox play in Douglas and Bisbee, Thursday.

Several Crack Marksmen
At Ray's Gun Shoot.
Ray, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Ray's first attempt at a national gun shoot proved to be an interesting event. It was given under the auspices of the Ray Gun club and prizes amounting to over $500 were given to those making high scores.

Mr. and Mrs. Topperwein, of the Winchester Arms company, did some fancy shooting for the spectators. The two travel over the United States during the winter for the company.

Chas. Rathbun, of Deming, N. M., made 115 birds without missing the shot. Dick Reed of the Remington Arms company made the highest score.

Victories For Oklahoma.
Since that time the tide has turned and the Sooners have been the winners. In 1910 and 1911 they won over Texas by the undecisive scores of 10 to 0 and 6 to 2. At Dallas last year Oklahoma won by a score of 21 to 6. The members of this year's Longhorn team would rather play the Sooners eleven times than any other team played this year because the men playing for Oklahoma had been defeated by the Sooners in the last two years.

In the 13 years athletic relationship between the institutions, there never has been the slightest strain in the friendly attitude between the two institutions.

HOPE TO MAKE IT 500.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—"Make it 500," is the slogan of University of Chicago students for the game with Northwestern Saturday. The Maroons have rolled up 418 points in games against the Methodists and the students would like to see it made 500.

REMAINING GAMES TO BE PLAYED.
Vermilion, S. D., Nov. 6.—The two games remaining on the University of South Dakota football schedule will be played, in line with a request of the student body in mass assembled. The team will meet Michigan Aggies Nov. 15, and Creighton university on Thanksgiving day.

WAS LIVELY SCRIMMAGE.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—With all the regulars in their places, the St. Louis university football team was given a strenuous scrimmage with the freshmen eleven. The men are in good shape and eager for the next game.

FENNER QUINTET LEADS IN TOURNEY

Abbott's Bowlers Lose to the Smelter League Leaders—Foster's Team Defeats Walsh's.

Fenner's five retained its lead at the head of the Smelter league percentage column Wednesday night at the Cactus alleys, easily winning three of the four points from Abbott's team. Fenner's quintet, by its mid-season rolling in recent games, has established a lead on the initial berth with Jensen's team a few points behind, in second position. Fenner rolled a high game of 185 and total 492.

Foster rolled high game, 197, in the second match, and this, coupled with the consistent games of his teammates, enabled that five to defeat the Walsh team. Although Walsh rolled high total, 513, it was not sufficient to offset the advantage obtained by the Foster five. The scores:

FINAL SCRIMMAGES HELD FOR SATURDAY

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 6.—The Princeton varsity and freshman football eleven lined up against each other in the final scrimmage before the Harvard game Saturday. The Princeton team won, 5 to 0, in a half hour of play.

The coaches have abandoned hope of making Princeton a football power. The place primarily on his kicking ability and will depend on either Law, Borden or Captain Baker to attend to that branch of the game. The team averaged well up to those of both Law and Borden. Trainer Fitzpatrick said all his men were in good condition.

HARVARD ELEVEN DOWNS
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 6.—Harvard's varsity eleven downed an imaginary Princeton foe in the stadium when they repulsed every attack by the Princeton team. This team, strongly reinforced by coaches, was using Tiger plays. The scrimmage was the hardest of the week. It was the last before Saturday's game at Princeton.

The Crimson will go into this game with its best men. The line, led by Eddie Mahan, the crack halfback, took part in the hard work and reported himself in good condition. Trumbull, the big center, was released from the infirmary and will be ready to play Saturday.

FORMER YALE PLAYERS
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Nineteen former Yale football players flocked to Yale field and assisted head coach Jones in coaching the varsity eleven. The squad was picked from the Yale team and the varsity scoring two touchdowns against the freshmen. Wilson ran the eleven at quarter in the final form. Captain Ketchum played his new position at right end well. There was plenty of drive in the varsity attack and the defensive showed improvement.

SIX TOUCHDOWNS MARK
PENN'S FINAL SCRIMMAGE
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6.—Six touchdowns marked the scoring power of the University of Pennsylvania's eleven in the final scrimmage prior to the Dartmouth game Saturday. It was the first chance the institution had of unfolding the attack built up for the Hanover team and the way they outscored the foe in the 50 minutes workout brought joy to the coaches.

STAR HALFBACK ILL.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Just as captain Purdy, out of the game for 10 days on account of injuries, returned to the practice field, another backset befell the Nebraska eleven when Ruthersford, star halfback, was taken down with a fever and a physician summoned to attend him. Aside from the ailing halfback, the regulars are in excellent shape.

GAME CALLED OFF.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—The athletic managers of Creighton university were notified that the game with Washington university of St. Louis, scheduled for Saturday, had been called off. The notice did not contain the reasons, but it is stated here that Washington objected to Creighton using freshmen in its lineup.

HOPE TO MAKE IT 500.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—"Make it 500," is the slogan of University of Chicago students for the game with Northwestern Saturday. The Maroons have rolled up 418 points in games against the Methodists and the students would like to see it made 500.

BIG LEAGUE SEASON WILL OPEN APRIL 14

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—The National and American league seasons will open April 14 next year, according to president B. B. Johnson, of the Junior organization.

Mr. Johnson has communicated with Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, and the National league's official date maker, and both officials have agreed to the later date than has been customary for starting the season.

The late start will not prevent the world's series from beginning on October 3 as in the past, according to the plan. President Johnson said there were several open dates in the 1913 schedule which were used for exhibition games. He stated that the number of open dates in the 1914 schedule would be reduced to make up for the late start.

RAY TENNIS PLAYERS OPEN A NEW COURT
Ray, Ariz., Nov. 6.—A new tennis court has been opened at the American townsite for the benefit of those residing in that section. S. S. Jacobs has been elected secretary of the organization and some good contests will be held between those of the townsite and players using the office dormitory courts.

H. H. Macdonald has purchased a new ball club. Bob LaSalle will drive it.

YUMAS PASSED FORWARD WORK ON PHOENIX HIGHS

LACK FOOTBALL SENSE.
Columbia, Mo., Nov. 6.—The Missouri state university football team made a poor showing in a scrimmage against the freshmen. Lack of football "sense" was conspicuous.

GREER MAY DIE.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—Greer, the southwestern quarterback, who was operated on Monday, is in a critical condition and may not survive.

Knockout Brown Holds a Date
Herrick and Hanson Get Busy

GEOGE (KNOCKOUT) BROWN, the Chicago fighter, has wired his acceptance of any terms proposed by the matchmaker of the International A. C. if they are regarded sufficient for him to meet the winner of the fight between middleweight fight on one of the holiday dates in December. Brown has sent his record to S. G. Gonzales, promoter of the club, and that he will keep an open date to box before the I. A. C. at Juarez any time during December or the first month of 1914.

It is hardly probable that either participant in the November 23 headline fight will have any difficulty in making the required weight, which calls for a scale of 155 pounds at 9 o'clock in the morning before the contest. Jack Herrick's weight is suitable for the contest right now, according to Joe. The Kansas fighter, he says, tips the beam at 164, striped, and as he will begin light boxing Friday afternoon in East El Paso, there will be no trouble in reducing to the specification of the articles.

Battling Yaqui and Kid Williams, the soldier fighter, are in line for a match in the curtain raiser. Yaqui has never been given a tryout at Juarez. In his initial fight, Williams outpointed Battling Burke in four rounds.

Hanson will inaugurate work Monday afternoon at the Swastika annex, which is now being equipped for his use. The erection of the ring and other accommodations are now in progress.

Hatch, who pitched for Phoenix, allowed but seven hits, and Chech, of Los Angeles, was touched for six bases. The Los Angeles club was out of the game.

That nightweights will hold the boards sometime during the holidays, is the assurance given by promoter S. G. Gonzales. Lightweights are attractive drawing cards at Juarez, because of the fact that which have during the entire 20 rounds. Prince Howard, manager of Fighting Thorpe, is anxious to match the easterner with either Frankie Gage or Bobby Waugh at Juarez—Waugh preferred. Gage has refused to meet the Kansas City boxer, unless he receives a guarantee, which the promoters are unwilling to give. Waugh is anxious to come, however, according to recent advices from St. Louis, where he has been boxing lately.

Grease paint and "stage money" in large quantities are being put up as a bribe to stage a match between "Fighting" Billy Gilbert and "Swift Kick" Lee Harrison, two comedians at a local theater, who have flung defiance to each other. #### FULTZ MAY BE GIVEN HEARING, SAYS LYNCH

Demands Framed in Behalf of the Fraternity Are Not Unfair Says National League President.

New York, Nov. 6.—Under certain conditions David I. Fultz will receive a hearing before the National commission on president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity when the players' demands for changes in contract and terms are presented, according to president Lynch, of the National league. Although chairman Herrmann, of the commission, declared some time ago Fultz, as an "outsider," would not be received as the men's representative, president Lynch expressed a different view.

"The demands framed by Fultz in behalf of the fraternity are not unfair, taking them as a whole," said Mr. Lynch, and I believe everything can be adjusted satisfactorily if the frat-
